

What is Your Hope?

- ★ To help students feel comfort and overcome obstacles.
- ★ To change generational poverty.
- ★ To pass the LPCC exam for the first time.
- ★ To go to college or an additional training program.
- ★ To make a difference.
- ★ That my students and families feel heard and seen.
- ★ To foster connection.
- ★ I hope you know you are loved- just as you are today!
- ★ To be valued.
- ★ To teach students skills when they feel like they have no control.
- ★ To show students their worth!
- ★ To be funded.
- ★ To be heard.
- ★ I hope we as adult supporters truly see and show love and patience.
- ★ I hope I'm helping students.
- ★ I hope that all families will have a place to call home!
- ★ I hope students find someone they can lean on ANYTIME!
- ★ I hope to continue to support and affirm LGBTQIA+ youth receive inclusive and equitable care...Dana Johnson, Director of Youth Housing of Rainbow Community Center
- ★ I hope students feel self-worth.
- ★ I hope for all schools to take advantage of homeless education programs and to be AWARE and be able to REALLY help students.
- ★ I hope I can find resources and agencies to refer to.
- ★ I hope to ignite a passion within my small community.
- ★ I hope for success and happiness.
- ★ I hope teachers make every student feel safe and included despite challenging behaviors.
- ★ I hope to bring a moment of joy and peace to every student I see in a day 😊
- ★ I hope to make a positive impact.

What is Your Hope?

- ★ I hope that we create a space where students feel safe and connected to their community.
- ★ I hope for students to achieve their dreams ♥.
- ★ I hope our teachers will see things from their child's perspective.
- ★ I hope that I can help break the cycle of poverty for students/families.
- ★ I hope to offer a safe place.
- ★ I hope to teach students how to love themselves.
- ★ I hope to instill self-confidence in this new generation.
- ★ I hope to teach how to get to a state of peace.

HOPE